Expected project CAPEX: 2'939'615 €
Mandating Authority: Bonifacio Municipality
Project Type: Wastewater treatment

Summary
Reuse of treated wastewater for irrigation of the Gulf of Sperone (REUT)

Location and population
Bonifacio, France
2'872 inh.

Social and environmental impact
Saves 170,000 m3 of drinkable water per year. Bonifacio is part of the region in the extreme south of Corsica subject to a decree on water restrictions.

Main stakeholders
Close cooperation with state services, l’ARS and DDTM, the territorial collectivity of Corsica, l’Agence de l’eau, the GOLF of SPERONE, Veolia eau
STAGE 1: Concept Development, Site identification

Expected capacity

Land identified
Bonifacio: transfer line of 6km between the STEP and the Golf of Sperone.

Site access:
- Adequate road: Yes
- Rail access: No
- Port facilities: No

Technology: Reuse of water after treatment

Waste water stream data

STAGE 2: Pre-Feasibility Studies

Pre-feasibility study: Yes

STAGE 3: Feasibility Studies

Feasibility study: Yes

STAGE 4: Permitting / Financing / Contracts

Land concession signed
Authorizations by prefectoral decree on December 22, 2015

Building permits signed
None

Environmental impact study
None

Identified sources of fundings
None

STAGE 5: Engineering / Construction / Commercial Operation

Engineering, Procurement and Construction Contractor
CABINET Blasini/ VEOLIA EAU

Operation and Maintenance Contractor
Société des eaux corse.

Comments